

SAVE THE DATE!

September 19 – 22, 2012

Hope for Healing:

Understanding Attachment and the Effects of Developmental Trauma

Sheraton Inner Harbor Hotel, Baltimore, Maryland

FEATURED KEYNOTE SPEAKERS:

BESSEL VAN DER KOLK, M.D., Renowned leader, clinician, and expert in the understanding and treatment of trauma will present a full-day training, The Complexity of Adaption in Trauma: Understanding the Impact of Trauma through a Developmental Lens.

JOYANNA SILBERG, Ph.D., Award-winning clinician, dynamic speaker, and family advocate will present Building Attachment Across States: Healing Dissociative Symptoms in Children and Adolescents.

DAN HUGHES, Ph.D., Master clinician, innovator, and pioneer in the field of healing attachment injury will present Brain-Based Parenting: What Neuroscience is Teaching Us about Connections with Our Kids.

30 INNOVATIVE WORKSHOPS ADDRESSING:

Attachment theory and disturbances ♦♦ Trauma and development ♦♦ Healing family systems
Neurobiology of attachment ♦♦ Sensorimotor interventions ♦♦ Evidence-based treatments
Mind-body approaches ♦♦ LGBTQ parenting/youth issues ♦♦ Perspectives on gender
Ethics ♦♦ Organizational challenges ♦♦ Education
Divorce ♦♦ Family law ♦♦ Military families

*Come join other inspired professionals and parents and improve the lives of children and families.
Watch for more information on www.attach.org*